

D.C. Municipal Workers Poised for Walkout

Gillis Says Employees Will Picket

Joint City-Union Talks On Increased Pay Fail

Daly City municipal employees were poised today for an all-out strike starting Wednesday which could cripple some city services and slow up many others.

Frank Gillis, union representative of Local 919, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, predicted this morning "pickets will be out Wednesday morning" around the Civic Center and other areas maintained by the city.

The declaration came after Gillis stomped out of a joint union-council meeting held Monday night to discuss the wage increases and fringe benefits passed unanimously by the council last week.

If the employees carry through their threat it will be the first such strike of municipal employes in San Mateo County history. Only three other California cities have ignored the legal taboos attached to municipal employees striking — Oxnard, Long Beach and Santa Monica.

City Attorney Albert Polonsky, acting with the approval of the council, informed Gillis and other local representatives attending the hours-long meeting "if you feel your position is such that you must go out . . . if you do go out . . . and the strike is later deemed illegal (in the courts) the city can bring the matter before the Personnel Board and have those participating discharged or suspended."

Gillis called Polonsky's statement "a threatening gesture so we will know to the council's decisions (on pay and fringe benefits)."

The union has been unhappy since the council unanimously passed a resolution last week giving police a ten per cent across-the-board pay increase, and granting only a 2½ per cent increase to employees working 37½ hours and five per cent to those working a 40 hour week.

They are also concerned with the new retirement decision, vacations and the residency requirement. All three items have been sent back to the Personnel Board for further consideration before again being acted upon by the council.

The 75-member union has already given Gillis a strike vote and the veteran union leader said he would be "absolutely amazed" if they did not back his strike move.

Councilman Edward Dennis, longtime president of the Milk Drivers and Dairywomen's Association, predicted the employees would not walk out.

Asked if he would cross any picket line in the event the union did strike, Dennis evaded the question by repeating "there will be no strike."

What action the city will take in the matter is unpredictable at this time, Polonsky said.

Gillis terminated his talks with the city council after Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett informed him there would be "no change on what has already been decided upon."

Earlier in their discussion, Gillis had made it clear he not only would insist on more pay for the employees, but also shorter hours and a change in the vacation and retirement policies.

He accused the council of "playing catch up . . . that's all" in their most recent pay and fringe benefit decisions and said the city set the standards when it gave the police a ten per cent pay boost.

"I'm not, however, asking for this raise (10 per cent)," Gillis assured the council.

White Front Bandits Net $20,000 Here

Two men armed with a sawed-off shotgun and a pistol held up the White Front Supermarket in South San Francisco Sunday, and escaped with a reported $20,000 after terrorizing store employees.

Police said the pair entered the store through an open door in the produce department shortly before 9 a.m., and before the store opened for business.

Five employees, including a manager Larry Partington, were herded into the office, and Partington was ordered to open the safe.

After removing the contents of the safe, the robbers, both described as "Negro males in their late twenties," ordered the store employees into a bathroom, and locked the door from the outside.

A car belonging to one of the store employees, produce manager Haru Matsukawa, was used by the robbers, as a getaway vehicle.

The car was later found parked in the Brentwood area, three blocks from the robbery scene.

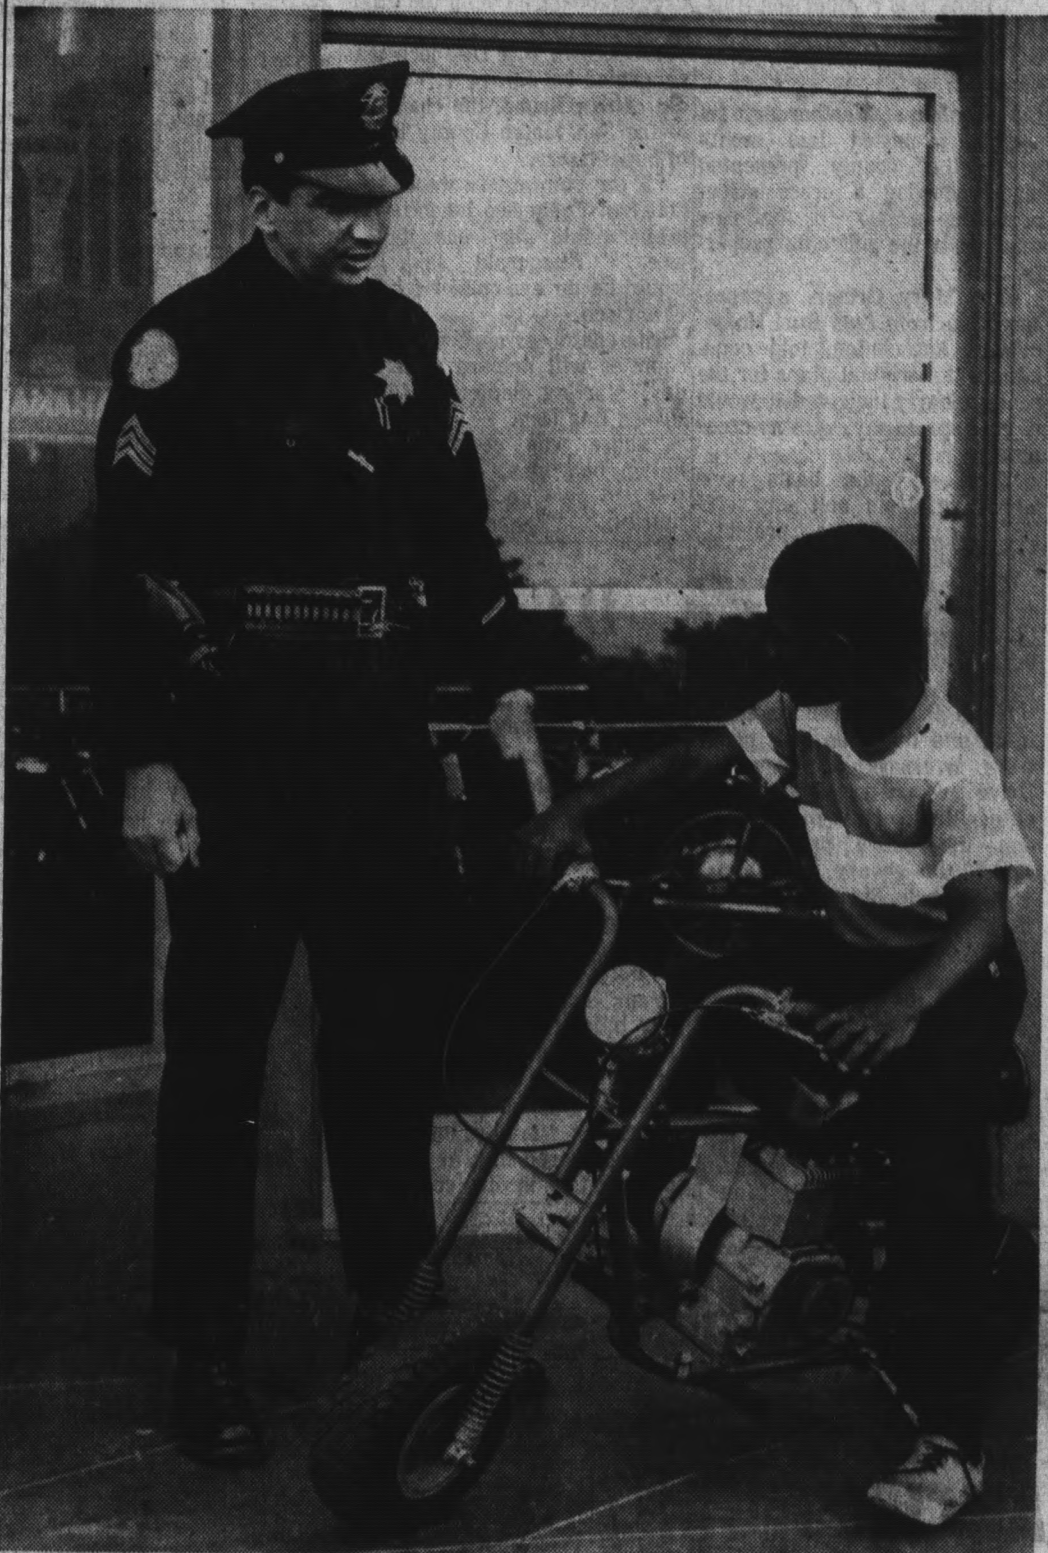

The store employees forced the door of the bathroom open about ten minutes after the robbery occurred, police said. An "all points alert" was broadcast.

While the police said the amount of cash taken in the robbery has not been determined, "but it was in excess of $20,000."

Another source said the robbery take was "believed to be in the neighborhood of $20,000."

A similar robbery occurred at the White Front Store about one year ago.

Bandits gained entrance to the building in the same manner, and escaped with a large amount of cash after locking 15 employees in a storeroom.

Drivers Can't See Those Mini-Bikes

By FRANK LAPIERRE

Daly City police are starting to give maxi-concern to those mini-bikes in the wake of several serious injury accidents around the city involving children.

The tiny bikes are powered by engines under five horsepower (usually around 3.5 hp) and are being ridden in increasing numbers on city streets in direct violation of existing laws, according to Police Sgt. Ed Guzman.

What concerns Guzman and his fellow officers is the number of injuries being sustained by young riders. Most accidents involve the mini-bikes and cars.

"These motorbikes are so small auto drivers just can't see them," Guzman said.

Dealers sell the mini-bikes for about $143 and tell parents (or buyers over 21 years old) that riders must confine their travels to their own property or other areas off city streets and highways.

"But the kids don't always abide by this (law) and as soon home they get the mini-bike and ride out into the streets with it," Guzman said.

One of the worst accidents occurred last week at the intersection of First and Valley Streets. Two youths on a mini-bike hit the fender of a passing car (the motorist said he did not see the bike). The 12-year-old riding on the rear of the mini-bike slammed into the front tire of the car and ended up with his head wedged between the wheel and fender. He is in critical condition in the hospital with a fractured skull.

The bikes, for the most part, are not equipped with necessary safety equipment such as lights, signals, etc., and are also being ridden by children under 16.

"If a youth is 15 and the parents are away from home, the bike is properly equipped, it can be ridden just about anywhere," Guzman said. "However, most are just not equipped for the street and, secondly, they are being operated by under-aged children."

The number of serious accidents involving mini-bikes has increased by at least 25 per cent, police reports indicate.

What happens if a youth is caught on the street with one of these so-called "mini-bikes," Guzman was asked?

"The first time we catch one of these kids we warn him and the parents. The second time, we impound the bike and cite the rider. Technically, we can also issue a citation to the parents if we want to," Guzman replied.

Parents whose children are cited for this violation must report with them to Juvenile Court.

"I want to emphasize that these mini-bikes are not only illegal on city streets, but downright dangerous," Guzman said.

Couple Hurt In San Bruno

A Pacifica man and his wife were injured, but not hospitalized, in a near head-on crash with another Pacifica driver on slippery Sharp Park Road, near Pacific Heights Boulevard in San Bruno Monday.

Police said Gary D. Fogle, 22, of 2580 Francisco Boulevard was eastbound on forged-in Sharp Park Road at 8:04 p.m. when his auto collided with a westbound car operated by Everett W. Kennedy, 46, of 1044 Zamora Drive.

Truck Engine Catches Fire, Driver Hurt

Although severely burned and injured when his truck caught fire and crashed Sunday, a San Francisco man is lucky to be alive today, sheriff's deputies said.

Deputy Thomas O'Rourke described Kenneth Everett Anderson's escape from the flaming wreckage of his truck as "miraculous."

O'Rourke gave this account of the accident, which occurred at 7 p.m. at the Pacific Cement and Aggregates quarry on San Bruno Mountain near Brisbane: Anderson, 49, of San Francisco, was driving his big dump truck, loaded with 30 tons of dirt fill, downhill on the quarry exit road when the engine caught fire. Flames shot into the driver's compartment and set his trousers afire, causing Anderson to lose control of the truck. The truck struck an embankment and flipped onto its left side as the flames spread quickly, enveloping the entire front end of the big rig.

The driver, his clothes afire and badly injured, managed somehow to scramble out through the broken windshield. A foreman, Gary Bengoeshea, rushed up and smothered the flames in Anderson's pants and shirt.

The victim suffered third degree burns over about 30 per cent of his body — on his arms, legs, face and back. In addition, O'Rourke said, he sustained a possible broken ankle and multiple cuts and bruises. He was admitted to Mary's Help Hospital where he was reported in fair condition today.

Anderson was engaged in the hauling of fill material to International Airport for a runway extension project.

Taxing Plan Is Labelled 'A Stinker'

Ed Morgan, superintendent of the Jefferson High School District in Daly City and Pacifica hasn't much nice to say about the property tax proposition on the November State Ballot.

In fact Morgan recently used a single word to describe his reaction to the Watson initiative: "Stinker."

Rap Alioto Commuter Tax Sarcasm

San Mateo County Supervisor William M. Werder suggested Tuesday that all commuters send San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto a smoked salmon sandwich as a means of protesting the proposed San Francisco commuter tax.

Werder noted that when Alioto was told of plans of other counties to fight back with a weekly "Brown Bag Day" his comment was: "Tell them to bring a smoked salmon for me. On French."

"As long as he has seen fit to be sarcastic," Werder said today, "maybe each of the commuters just ought to send a smoked salmon sandwich to Alioto's office."

"How about herring?" Supervisor Robert St. Clair interposed.

Assemblyman Carl Britschgi appeared before the county board this morning to assure the supervisors that he will push through the Legislature next month any measure deemed to be necessary to stop the commute tax. The Legislature this year passed a law intending to pre-empt the field. Alioto, however, claims that the law does not apply to San Francisco. Britschgi said he was pushing an amendment to the bill to "plug any loopholes that Alioto may find."

The board adopted a resolution officially authorizing District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson to attack the tax levy in court. Sorenson said the suit will be filed by several Bay Area counties in a place still to be determined, a county out of this area.

At a strategy meeting in the office of Chairman Robert E. Hannon of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors in Oakland, officials of three counties agreed:

Bid to Up Garbage Rates Turned Down in S.S.F.

By DON GRIERSON

South San Francisco councilmen turned down a rate increase bid from the city's scavenger company Monday, on grounds the firm intended "to use the collection rate increase as a means of financing a new disposal plant."

George Stagnaro, a partner in the South San Francisco Scavenger Co., had requested an increase from $1.50 to $2.35 a month for servicing each 30-gallon garbage can in the city.

The increase was requested to cover additional disposal costs the firm will face when the Pan American Resources Co. completes a disposal plant in the city, Stagnaro said.

In denying the rate increase, on the advice of City Attorney John Noonan, Mayor Frank Bertucci and members of the council said they felt the city should avoid such a move until a proven process is established. Councilman Andrew Rocca said the president of the firm which plans to install the disposal plant informed him in a letter last week that the company is in financial difficulties.

"It appears to me you are asking the city to finance an experimental disposal plant which might not even prove successful," Rocca said. "We need to see something better before committing the city."

"We will have to see a bird in the hand," Mayor Bertucci said. "My understanding of the city's agreement with the scavenger company was that the plant was to be built and tested before a rate increase could be considered."

Stagnaro said his firm is "in the unenviable position of being the first scavenger operation in the area to run out of dumping space."

"A disposal process which meets all the government standards is naturally going to be expensive," Stagnaro said.

The company's present dump site will reach its capacity in a few months, according to the scavengers, "and if we don't make final arrangements for this disposal plant, then we will have to try something else soon."

The Pan American Resources disposal process is supposed to reduce garbage to a marketable residue of carbon particles, "and promises to be the most economical means of disposal" because of the production of the by-product, Stagnaro said.

Premium Price Paid for S.S.F. Golf Club Land

San Mateo County paid more than $50,000 per acre for lands purchased from the California Golf Club for the Westborough Boulevard extension right-of-way, South San Francisco Attorney John Noonan reported Monday.

In presenting the figures in an "interim report" on negotiations over the new roadway, Noonan told councilmen the price paid for the golf club property "tends to support the city's non-access position."

Owners of the golf club have asked for access to the new road from their property, though the project was considered an "expressway" in early plans.

Noonan said Monday the state paid only $25,000 per acre for golf club lands condemned in project, and "there were no access rights awarded with this price."

The state's arrangement with the golf club owners provides only that the "abutting lands shall have access to an adjoining frontage road which will be connected to the main thoroughfare of the freeway only at such points as may be established by public authority."

"I think this comparison illustrates the reasonableness of the city's non-access position," Noonan said.

A number of Westborough residents protested last month when the county presented plans showing a cross street providing access to the new road from the golf club property.

Mrs. Mary Ortnier, a representative from Buri Buri Homeowners Association, told councilmen the original plans for the road "clearly indicated it would be an expressway, with no cross streets."

"This was the basis upon which residents and city officials accepted the project," Mrs. Ortnier said.

County supervisors have set a deadline of September 18 for "final agreement" on the Westborough Boulevard extension plans.

If the disputes over the access issue and the issue of a pedestrian overpass at Camaritas Drive are not resolved by that date, "the county might abandon the entire project, and spend the money elsewhere," according to Supervisor James Fitzgerald.

St. Paul's United Methodist Church of South San Francisco is in the midst of vacation church school which is being held through August 23 from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. each weekday.

The Rev. Oscar E. Link is presenting a sermon series based on the Psalms.

Brown Bag Boycott

of the 1 per cent tax on commuter paychecks.

To ask the Association of Bay Area Governments to urge Alioto to abandon the proposal in the interest of inter-governmental harmony.

To explore the possibility of an official boycott of all San Francisco products and services by other Bay Area counties.

To establish a close liaison with commuter organizations to make sure their desires are being considered.

To encourage commuters to bring their own lunch one day a week to demonstrate the impact outsiders have on the economy of San Francisco.

The Brown Bag Day idea was suggested by James V. Fitzgerald of San Bruno, the chairman of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

"If the commuters would boycott San Francisco luncheon establishments just one day a week," Fitzgerald said, "it would be an eye-opener for San Francisco."

The conferees agreed that the counties will declare each Friday, starting September 6, as Brown Bag Day.

"Those who don't like the brown bag idea, or who don't want to give up their luncheon martini," Fitzgerald reported, pass Daly City in both salary and fringe benefits.

The meeting hit a sour note when Polonsky interrupted Gillis, saying "We are not negotiating with you, only listening, as we have always done."

Little was appointed temporary chairman of a Commuters' Communications Committee.

The duty of the committee, Fitzgerald explained, will be to keep the elected officials advised of actions the commuters want taken against San Francisco.

Athan reported on the results of a meeting of county counsels and district attorneys in Oakland last week. It was the consensus, Athan said, that the proposed tax is illegal in that the state has pre-empted the field of such taxation and because it would be taxation without representation. Legislation adopted in Sacramento this year clearly prohibits the tax, Athan said, although Alioto claims San Francisco is exempt by the terms of its charter.

District attorneys are to report to their supervisors this week, Fitzgerald said, after which the counties will join together to file the suit. The lawsuit, the board chairman said, will ask for an injunction against the tax starting January 1 if the matter is not otherwise settled by then.

Fitzgerald said he would report to his own board today that "Alioto is destroying San Francisco" and is making a "tragic mistake."

"He is breaking down all the cooperative efforts we have been trying for years to build up," Fitzgerald declared.

D.C. Strike Threatened

defended the pay increases and said they were comparable to those paid employees in other cities in the county.

He said "the council is also responsible to the taxpayers, in addition to the employees."

"The recent raise represents 18 cents of the 25-cent tax increase passed last week," Frank explained, adding that pay hikes for the employees had far outpaced cost of living increases in the area.

Gillis labeled Frank's statements as "totally unrealistic" and countered that at least two other cities in the county surpass Daly City in both salary and fringe benefits.

The meeting hit a sour note when Polonsky interrupted Gillis, saying "We are not negotiating with you, only listening, as we have always done."

Only One Bid Garbage Fees On Monument

A contract for construction of South San Francisco's veterans' monument was awarded to Lafayette Manufacturing Company of San Francisco Monday.

The firm's bid of $5,228 was the only bid received on the project. This bid was considerably lower than the city's estimated cost of $7,500.

A model of the monument, which will feature a modernistic "eternal flame" column, will be built and presented for the city's consideration before final approval of the contract, councilmen said.

proved last year, the disposal plant will be built on a site in the city owned by the scavenger company, and scavengers will contract to deliver refuse for disposal at a rate of $3.50 per ton.

A pilot model of the company's plant has been built at Milpitas, and is now operating efficiently, according to representatives of the firm.

The South San Francisco plant is expected to cost about $1.6 million, not including the cost of the site, and could be completed by June, 1969, Stagnaro said.

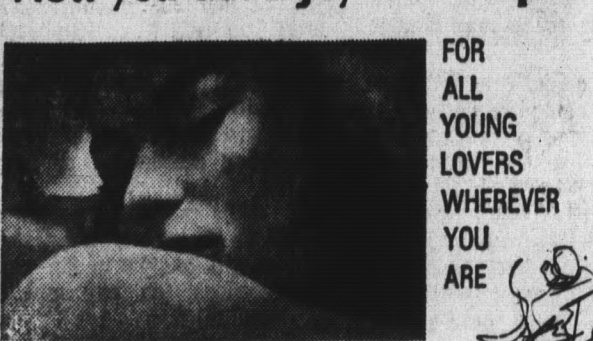

Stagnaro and R. A. McBride, a Pan American Resources representative, will make another appearance before the council in two weeks to present a "lay-out of the plant and a certified audit of the company."

McBride said attorneys for the firm are currently raising capital for the operation in the east.

He said a recent shake-up in the firm's management has been resolved, "and things are now on an even keel."

Pacifica's Jaycees Hear Governor of District 15

The Pacifica Jaycees hosted the District 15 Governor, Bill Leslie at a recent dinner meeting.

Governor Leslie spoke to more than 30 Jaycee members about leadership and participation in the Jaycee organization, and outlined and reaffirmed the broad goals of District 15, along with the overall objectives of the California Jaycees.

He emphasized the Jaycee philosophy of personal development of the individual through civic community development, youth and sports, health and safety, and many similar programs.

The Jaycees also heard Marv Schneider, a recently-elected advisor of the Bon Drill Team, request the Jaycee sponsor, or support, the drill team.

The Team is made up of high school girls from Pacifica and is led by Charlie Webb, an Oceana High School student. The Jaycees are considering undertaking the sponsorship, the matter is currently under advisement.

President John Drew presented Jaycee of the Month Awards for July to Jack Laskey, treasurer, and John Plato, director.

Laskey won his award for his outstanding chairmanship of the annual fireworks sale.

Plato received his award for work as publicity chairman since the beginning of the fiscal year.

Dennis King is heading a committee to develop and present a proposal to the California Jaycees Board of Directors to conduct a Battle of the Bands State Finals in Pacifica.

If the State Board approves the proposal, the Pacifica Jaycees will be responsible for undertaking the biggest project in their history. The State Finals will gain recognition for Pacifica throughout all of California.

Two visitors at the meeting, Dan Crabtree and Austin Emmerling of the Grass Valley Jaycees were staying in Pacifica to participate in the Jaycee Bass Derby.

Contestants in the Derby are eligible for prizes to be awarded for the biggest fish. The Pacifica Sports Center is the official headquarters and weigh in station.

The Striped Bass Derby will be over August 31 and registration tickets available.

Square Dancing For Beginners

The Square Cutters Club will conduct square dance classes for beginners, starting at 8 p.m. September 18 at the Guadalupe School, Prague and Cardova Streets, San Francisco.

Details may be obtained from Al Stagnaro of 540 South Hill Boulevard, Daly City.

Vice President Lee Riewerts gave a special slide and tape presentation of the Congress for Community Progress. Riewerts is the project committee chairman who will be responsible for establishing a Congress made up of panel groups.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company serves in an advisory capacity while the project is sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce.

The objective of the Congress is to find ways to make Pacifica a better place in which to live, play and work. The Congress will be held January 11, according to Riewerts.

Two new members were installed by the Pacifica Jaycees at the same meeting. Thirty-two year old John Drum and his wife Mary have two children, a boy and a girl. He is a self-employed insurance agent in San Francisco.

Chris Lemier, 30, is a two-month resident of Pacifica. Chris, his wife Judith and three boys moved here from Klamath Falls, Ore., where he also was a Jaycee.

Roos/Atkins To Open D.C. Store

Roos-Atkins, the West's largest men's and women's specialty wear chain, opens its thirty-sixth store in the Serramonte Center, Daly City, on September 5.

Graydon C. Colburn, R-A president and chief executive officer announced today.

Designed by Burke, Kober, Nicolais & Archuleta, Los Angeles-San Francisco based architectural and engineering firm the building will consist of approximately 20,000 square feet of main floor and lower level, and represents an investment of over $1 million.

The main level, featuring men's clothing and furnishings and women's clothing, will be decorated with oiled walnut panels, casings and displays.

The gold carpeting in the women's section will blend with the yellows, golds and shades of white of the accent colors.

Panels of decorative wallpaper will add the feminine touch to this area.

Bright red carpeting will be used throughout the men's section, with a heavy accent of walnut paneling.

A curving stairway, carpeted in red, will lead to the lower level housing the boys' and girls' wear department.

This floor will have vinyl tile in white with a red stripe pattern running throughout the level.

Rose Society Will Meet On Thursday

"Mighty Miniatures," rainbow gems of the rose garden, program will be presented by Mrs. Edwin Lisherness, of Oakland when the San Mateo County Rose Society meets on Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Baywood School, 600 Alameda de las Pulgas, San Mateo.

Admission is free. The "Mini" Rose Show of the month will be staged by Julian Hargrove of Colma and Robert Ehm of San Mateo will feature the rose "Kings Ransom" a yellow hybrid tea, and a 1962 All-American Rose selection.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS By DONALD C. WAITE SHOWMANSHIP IN FURNISHINGS

Many of us have had the experience of attending a stage show and, immediately after the curtain rises, hearing the audience give a round of applause upon viewing the stage setting.

This is showmanship. It means the setting was an excellent portrayal of the mood, era, and character of the play.

You, too, can get compliments on the furnishing of your home and bring "showmanship" to your rooms, whether you furnish flamboyantly or conservatively. Of course, you should furnish flamboyantly only if you are a flamboyant and outgoing person; you should furnish more conservatively if you're quiet and studious. The first rule is to be yourself.

If you're a swinger and appreciate mod art, don't hesitate to buy a zebra throw rug, a wild LSD-inspired bedspread or a way-out-in-left-field Dali-pattern sofa as a means of self-expression in your home.

If you're ultra-conservative, you'd be making a great mistake to try to make your home something you are not.

Most of us are "middle-of-the-roaders," going to neither extreme, and we furnish accordingly. But, whichever way you furnish, you should use a little "showmanship" — a little flair to put some individuality and sparkle into your rooms — and you can do it. To see furniture and ideas that'll give your home the flair it needs, come and look around our showroom. There's no obligation.

USE OUR LAY-AWAY PLAN!

REV. HOWARD BRYANT of Daly City is in the process of remodeling a building on Wellington Avenue as a new church for his congregation.

Minister Turned Carpenter

The Second Baptist Church of Daly City presently meeting in the War Memorial Community Center will move to its new location on Sunday morning, September 1.

Number 5 Wellington Street, formerly owned by the City of Daly City and housing the Finance and Water departments, has been purchased by the congregation of Second Baptist and converted into a church.

The Rev. Howard A. Bryant, pastor of the church announces a series of three services commencing on September 1 at 3 p.m. and ending on September 15 with a formal dedication of the building.

Participating in the services will be the local ministerial group headed by the Rev. Thomas Unmacht and several congregations from San Francisco and the American Baptist Convention of Northern California headed by Dr. Clarence Orr. The general public is invited.

Lots of Smoke But There's No Fire

"Where there's smoke, there's fire" is a claim that was proved untrue early today.

And there was plenty of smoke, according to Daly City firemen, who spent two hours clearing it from the basement of a big but uncompleted store in the Serramonte Shopping Center.

A night watchman, in making his rounds, noted heavy smoke coming from the basement of the new McDonald's department store building, at 2 a.m.

He was unable to get to the scene of the smoke in the large basement, so reported to Daly City firemen the presence of a great deal of smoke in the building.

Firemen of Daly City's Station Seven in the Serramonte tract responded and found that there was no fire, but smoke aplenty, caused, they said from kerosene in an industrial heater coming in contact with hot metal of the heater.

'Busy' Month For Vocalists

The Daly City Community Chorus has had a "very busy" month, a member has pointed out, with appearances at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, the Laguna Honda Home and the Forest Hill Lodge.

Featured as soloists at these performances were Marge Somdahl, Brenda Wells and Dick Neves.

September performances will include the Skyline Chapter of B'nai B'rith at that chapter's annual "Harvest Ball" kickoff event.

Two new officers of the chorus, which meets weekly at 8 p.m., Thursday, are Donna Benson, secretary, and Lorie Smith, publicity.

A murder charge against Sigi-fili Taulua, 42, of 116 San Felipe Avenue, San Bruno, was dismissed yesterday after he pleaded guilty to a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

His attorney, Xenophon Tra-goutsis, applied for probation on the defendant's behalf and a hearing was scheduled for August 30 by Superior Judge Melvin E. Cohn.

Taulua was charged after William C. Hagedorn, 59, of 291 Mission Avenue, San Bruno, died of injuries suffered in a bar brawl. It was alleged that Taulua hit Hagedorn on the head with a bar stool.

Deputy District Attorney William Lanam said he felt allowing the defendant to plead to the lesser charge was a proper disposition of the case. Investigation indicated, he said, that there was no evidence of premeditation or other elements of murder.

Daly City a Film-Making Capital? Don't Laugh Yet

By FRANK LAPIERRE

Daly City may soon grab the title of "Film Capital of the West."

Would you believe "Film Capital of San Mateo County?"

Before you bust a gut with uncontrolled mirth, we suggest you trot on down to the Daly City Police Department and observe what's going on for yourself.

It's true you won't see Wally Westmore, or movie makeup fame, applying powder to the actors. And it's equally doubtful Otto Preminger will be spitting out orders around the set. Matter-of-fact we'd even wager there won't be any "name" stars around.

The curious will likely encounter only producer-director John Kolbmann, who depends on his salary as a police sergeant to pay the rent, not on his abilities as a filmmaker.

This is not to say Kolbmann isn't a truly great filmmaker. To date, he had 100 per cent attendance at all his shows in the police squad room — Chief Roland Petrocchi sees to that.

Kolbmann's efforts may be amateurish, and his stars may be dragged before the cameras from either the department or the local citizenry, but his product is very serious and could be the key to maintaining, and even bettering, community relations.

Exactly what Kolbmann and six of his fellow officers are doing (not to mention the hordes of "civilian" volunteers) is to turn out a series of video television tapes dealing with various situations the average officer may find himself projected into.

One 15-minute strip, for example, concerns itself with the right and wrongs in handling a drunk who thinks the local pub is the best place to "sleep it off."

In the first half, a young officer strides into the bar, grabs the drunk off a barstool and hustles him outside by twisting his arm behind him. This method goes over like a lead balloon with the other bar patrons, who were obviously on the side of the law until they witnessed this minor brutality.

A short recitation by a police instructor, and, enter "Mr. Good Cop."

The same officer does a turn around and walks into the bar where he encounters the same obnoxious drunk. But this time he talks to him for a while and finally succeeds in getting the inebriated gentleman (?) into a taxi and homeward bound — without incident and with the complete support of the other patrons.

Another short recitation by a police instructor and the strip is over.

The strips deal with everything from a direct message from Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lyett or a training show. They can be viewed during the briefing sessions for officers which follow roll calls.

The important thing is not that the series is designed to improve the police image, or that Daly City is the first such city in California — and perhaps the entire nation — to use this device, rather it is an important step in developing a good training program for police and a vehicle to put across messages and orders from the hierarchy within the city, according to Kolbmann.

Cost of a video tape is comparatively cheap: $53 for a tape that can be erased and used over and over again (up to 600 times) and is ready for use right away. A 16mm sound film costs some $320 per hour to make and requires several days to develop and edit, while an 8mm silent film costs $140 per hour to produce.

Equipment for the latter is cumbersome and expensive, while video equipment is relatively easy to move around.

Everyone from the mayor on down has made no secret of their satisfaction with the new system.

"In fact, we intend to slowly expand the system," Kolbmann confided before ordering "Quiet on the set. Take one. Roll 'em. Cut."

And we did. Cut out, that is!

Raising a 'Delinquent'

SLOW WEEK — Being as the mail was kinda light this week we thought this article on how to raise a juvenile delinquent (stolen from the Houston PD) might fill up some space. It's got a message somewhere, but we'd wager most people will pooh pooh it or agree that it sure fits the other people—but not them.

Here 'tis:

1—Begin at infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe the world owes him a living.

2—When he picks up bad words laugh at him. This will make him think he's cute.

3—Never give him any spiritual training, wait until he is 21 and then let him decide for himself.

4—Pick up everything he leaves lying around — books, shoes, clothes, do everything for him so that he will be experienced in throwing all responsibility on others.

5—Quarrel frequently in his presence, in this way he will not be too shocked when the home is broken later.

6—Give a child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?

7—Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.

8—Take his part against neighbors, teachers, policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.

9—When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourself by saying, "I never could do anything with him."

10—Prepare for a life of grief. You are bound to have it. And how!

DALY CITY COPS are now among the highest paid in the Bay Area. And it's about time. The raise was an obvious effort on the part of the city to attract more applicants. Still ten openings.

RAISING THE BRIDGE — Mrs. Murry H. Freedman tells us there are big doings — bridge-wise — getting underway September 4 at 10 a.m. (but she neglected to tell us where). Proceeds from the benefit tournament will aid the Research and Rehabilitation Program for Deaf and Aphasic Children at the SF Hearing Center.

Not only will "donors" (at $20 per head get to rub elbows with such celebs as Pat Collins, Rolf Peterson and Frank Dill (?), they may get a chance to zip away to Hawaii for five days at the Hilton or grab off a $500 gift certificate, compliments of a local jeweler. Third prize is four round trip tickets to Las Vegas for an all-expense paid stay at a plush resort hotel. (End of long plug for worthy cause.

JUDGE CHARLES BECKER, who usually dis- robes in Daly City's newest courthouse on Wellington, is away on vacation. All cases usually assigned to Hizzoner are being shifted to Judge Paul Hupf's Court in SSF. Like we said before: It's a slow week.

SO LET'S HURRY UP and get that BARTD tube finished and the India Basin Bridge going so we can get more commuters into San Francisco so Mayor Joe (he may be the VEEP choice) Alioto can gouge 'em out of their already overtaxed loot. There's talk around the county if he doesn't knock it off, several hundred revolting commuters (aren't ALL commuters revolting?) will stomp out to the airport and lie down on the runway.

SUPERMARKETS AREN'T losing money on those straying and sometimes disassembled shopping carts—YOU ARE. any overhead costs are, naturally, passed on to the consumer. That's me and you, fella! Those carts cost from $25 up, and that's a lotta money to tack onto a loaf of bread. BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE or leave them alone!

SAL CARSON, who plays fine trumpet and is packing 'em in at Clear Lake's Konocti Harbor Inn, pens that the Labor Day weekend will find many Bay Area celebs making the Lake County scene. Among the guests will be KCBS's Al Helms, KSFO's Jack Carney, KFOG's Ernie McDaniel, the Bow & Bell's Boots Erb and (natch) Westlake's Gene Perry.

'Producers' a Sick Joke

The supposedly comical antics of "The Producers" currently at the Alexandria Theatre left me terribly depressed. This condition was compounded twofold when, returning to my office and relating the various incidents of the film with amateur and impromptu impersonations of what the actors did to make it so disagreeable in my mind, my colleagues whooped and hollared with glee, assuring me they couldn't wait to see the film I was so convinced was without merit.

That is no compliment to my acting ability but a testimony to how ideas and sketches in scenes of a plot bear the promise of a more complete entertainment. "It sounds funny as heck," they replied and I admitted that I coveted the same optimism when I entered the theatre.

How can a play written by Mel Brooks, starring Zero Mostel and based on the preposterously funny premise, not be funny? "The Producers" is the answer and only seeing it will trace the downhill course of this theory. If I launch into an intellectual diatribe on its shortcomings, there is always the chance it will sound funny in the telling and thereby defeat my analysis of a film I can only assure you I found boring, "sick," erratic and ludicrously overdone.

ZERO MOSTEL, A MONSTROUSLY FUNNY MAN on the stage, assumes grotesque proportions on the screen. Not one to minimize a gesture, he grunts and mugs, twists his face into misshapen contours, rolls his eyes and milks every line to its nth degree. He's the down-and-out producer who fawns and cajoles rich little old ladies out of their life savings. Enticing them with the glamour of show business and the flattery of a lecherous roue, he pinches and paws them (Estelle Winwood leaps on top of him in a rather disgusting display of erotic optimism), to the accompaniment of cackling and coughing.

Into his seedy existence comes Gene Wilder (the marvelous undertaker from "Bonnie and Clyde") as a super-neurotic accountant who fashions a way for the producer to raise capitol of $100,000, stage a sure-fire turkey of a show costing only $60,000, claim total loss and skip to Bermuda with the balance.

They find a musical script glorifying the Third Reich titled "Springtime For Hitler" and in its most terrible excesses and rampant bad taste, catches on with first-nighters and critics and is proclaimed a hit.

The scene shifts to prison where the two larcenous promoters are staging a convict musical, scalping tickets on the inmates and selling shares to the warden.

THERE ARE FLASHES OF OCCASIONAL SLAPSTICK COMEDY, and occasional good lines. But its all destroyed by the frenetic pace, the erratic direction, extreme hysterical acting (Wilder throws a fit at one point because he's lost his piece of comfort blanket on which he sucks) and such burlesquing as to make the film clumsy.

Dick Shawn's portrayal of the rock 'n roll singer who plays Hitler is the best thing in the show, second only to the plot idea which I think is great. But execution of the film, somewhere between the writing and the casting went sour.

It's meant to be a great big romp, right down to the corny stereotyped bit of the gay director, completely dressed in drag, making advances at frightened Wilder. Had it been handled less self-consciously, as were the Jackie Gleason-Art Carney, or Red Skelton situation comedies, it would have burst with mirth.

Books for Near-Blind

In the prime of his life when his soul was burning to express the greatest thoughts he had ever known, John Milton went blind.

"O, loss of sight, of thee I most complain!" he cried, "Blind among enemies, O worse than chains, Dungeons, or beggary, or decrepitude."

For years before he became totally blind, Milton passed through periods when he could not read ordinary type, not even the publications of his own works.

In this he shared his affliction with thousands of near-blind persons. With Homer they call upon Heaven to "dispel this cloud . . . give me to see."

THERE IS NOW AVAILABLE an exciting collection of good books printed in large type so people not totally blind may read.

The titles chosen by the companies who print these books are deliberately diversified to appeal to many tastes.

Our Own Dashing Hero

ONE OF OUR advertising salesmen, Tom Coop, appears to have gone out of his way to get his name before your eyes, and all of our stalling has not worked.

He has submitted an item, arbitrarily entitled (the recently took some kind of college writing class):

"How Much Excitement Can Happen to One Person in Four Days' Time?"

Coop answers his own question: "A lot!" ON A RECENT Saturday night, while walking out of an eatery, he and a charming woman-friend were accosted by a man, with a knife (it "looked" big!), who headed straight-on for the girl.

Tom, a true dashing - hero - type, pulled the girl out of the way of danger and stood trembling and perspiring, facing the would-be attacker himself. Briefly, the two men tested each other's will, with Tom's flabbiness giving off a mistaken brawniness.

The "assailant" quivered under Coop's glares and fled . . . applause and a kiss or two!

THE FOLLOWING Tuesday, Tom again

showed his "cool" as he spotted a fire in the apartment situated just above his in Millbrae.

First shouting for someone to call the fire department, Coop personally alerted occupants of the building and "had them cleared out when firemen arrived, despite the intense heat of the fire."

Some of his own possessions were damaged by water.

Then, the next day a neighbor at one of the apartments reported that a hit-and-run driver had just smashed in one side of Tom's car. Now, he knew what that loud crunch was he'd heard earlier!

"IT WAS A GOOD WEEK," Coop recalled, not without a sarcastic sneer.

But, it "probably was worth it . . . all that personal loss and heroism! For now he has gained equal space in The Post with his colleague Terence Sweeney, whose beating at the hands of some thugs near Candlestick Park a few months ago also was publicized.

Thus, the motives are clear, eh?

SB Miss Thinks Sweden Is Tops

By JUNE SEIM

"Sweden must be the most beautiful country in the world, and I'm in love with Sweden and AFS," are two oft-quoted phrases from Maxine Papadakis, American Field Service exchangee to Sweden this summer.

Maxine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Papadakis of Crystal Springs Road, San Bruno, writes to her parents highlights and sidelights of her exciting stay abroad. They wish to share some of her comments with her school and community she represents as an American abroad.

New and exciting adventure began June 21 when the Capuchino High senior boarded a Dutch ship in New York City to travel to Rotterdam, Holland, with hundreds of American Field Service students from the United States. She shared a cabin with three others, also going to Sweden, from North Dakota, Illinois, and Oregon.

Maxine enthused, "One great thing is that all the AFSers are so friendly. No one is embarrassed to speak out. Everyone is so mature so it makes me feel really great!"

Life aboard ship was far from dull. The schedule was enough to keep Maxine racing from morning until the 11 p.m. curfew. Daily classes in language, orientation, forums on Vietnam, politics, religion, foreign policy, etc., were the order of the day. The students held a mock primary election, plus enjoying folksinging, dancing, and other shipboard entertainment.

On June 29, still on the high seas, Cap's lovely co-ed wrote, "I'm finally a full-fledged AFS member. Today we received our AFS pins. I really believe it when people tell me AFS stands for affection, friendship, and sincerity."

WITH LUNDGREN FAMILY
While in Sweden, Maxine is guest of the Sten Lundgren family of Umea. She shares an apartment home with the family which includes Herr Lundgren, manager of a hardware store; his wife, Nancy, a postal clerk; Eva, who is studying to be a primary school teacher, and Britta, a lively and sweet 17-year-old AFS "sister."

"This morning I arrived in Umea," Maxine wrote on June 3, "my family is great. They are exceedingly warm and friendly. They met me at the train station with a lovely bouquet of hand-picked flowers. We then went to the police station to register me, and to the mayor's office."

"The Swedish countryside is so beautiful. The train ride was very comfortable and the small green hills seem to keep on rolling throughout the country, and oh, those lakes! Mom, I'm sure Minnesota could never be like this. (Mrs. Papadakis is formerly from Minnesota.) Everywhere I look there is a gleaming blue lake surrounded by protecting trees. The people I saw working in the fields seemed weathered. I got the impression they are strong people within and very straight and honest."

KNOW HOW TO RELAX

Her first letters home were filled with exclamations about the contentment she felt and how relaxed the Swedish people appeared. The Lundgrens took Maxine to their summer home located on a lake about 45 minutes south of Umea. It is away from traffic, noise and didn't even "have electricity or running water" wrote the interested young AFSer. The two weeks at the summer home was a time for becoming acquainted with her Swedish family, and fishing with "Pappa" Lundgren.

Maxine commented on the Swedes' ability to relax and felt they were a bit reserved at first. She feels they have been taught to not show their emotions, but when their true personality shines through, it is well worth the waiting. She stated those she met were warm people, genuine and simple, not trying to impress or put on false airs. As her days with the Lundgrens become weeks, Maxine observed in a letter home... "Pappa has a wonderful personality and Mama is a very warm person who laughs with her heart. Eva is so much fun, rather a character, and Britta is a very witty girl."

Speaking of Britta, Maxine told how she has always gone to school six days a week, but this fall for the first time, school will be held five days a week all over Sweden.

CITY OF BIRCHES
Umea, or City of the Birches, has an illustrious history dating back to the fourteenth century, the young American Abroad has discovered. The first church was built in the fourteenth century along the salmon rapids of the Umea and Vannasby Rivers which start 300 miles away in the Norwegian mountains and meet about 20 miles west of the city.

This wooden church was replaced by a stone church early in the sixteenth century, bearing witness to the fact that they had plenty of manpower and draught animals in this district.

Umea became an early stage center of official administration, education and trade with development retarded somewhat by the Swedish-Russian wars of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Umea is proud of its new university which was opened in 1965 and is expanding annually.

The fire of 1888 destroyed practically all of the town and of the 50 or so houses saved, few remain today. The town was rebuilt, but this time the streets were made wide and birch trees planted along so the foliage could act as a fire screen in case such a disaster struck again. There are now about 550 birch trees in the streets of Umea. They normally leaf out about May 23, sometimes bursting into leaf in a little more than an hour after a warm spring rain.

The Umea River is noted for its salmon, but more so for its many power plants. One plant nearest the mouth of the river is Stornorrfor located within the boundaries of Umea and jointly owned by the city and state. It is the largest power plant in western Europe with a capacity of 375,000 KW.

MIDNIGHT SUN

Another new and fantastic difference between California and Sweden was experiencing daylight 24 hours a day.

Maxine wrote to her parents and brother, Anthony, "You can't imagine what it is when you haven't seen darkness for weeks. Of course, I'm referring to the midnight sun. Around 10 p.m., the sun will set, but it will not become dark. One can read a newspaper at any time during the night. Often we stay up quite late playing cards and the only light we use is a candle. Swedes are devout sun worshippers during the summer because in winter it becomes light about 8 a.m. and is completely dark again by 3 p.m."

Miss Papadakis is abroad on a community scholarship and expressed her wish that some of her thoughts and observations be shared with her school and community. The young student is in Sweden to learn all she can about the country and to convey an accurate picture of the life of her home, school, and surrounding country.

"Swedes have a nice custom called Vila," writes Maxine. "It is similar to our coffee break, but much more frequent. People drop in to say hello at any time and are always served the Swedish rich coffee and the delicious cookies. Yesterday we stopped unexpectedly at an aunt's house and she brought out a platter with nine different kinds of homemade cookies. Imagine what it would have been like if she'd known we were coming."

Mr. and Mrs. Papadakis happily report they couldn't have asked for a more wonderful family to entrust the care of their daughter for this summer. Maxine's varied interests in student government, civil rights, politics, fine arts, and music have fortified her with an excellent background for absorbing much of the culture of Sweden. Her letters reflect an astute sense of observation and delicate tact in handling many situations.

Lagomarsino Is Officer Of Month

Patrolman Fred Lagomarsino has been named by the South San Francisco Kiwanis Club as Policeman of the Month for August.

A native resident, 24-year-old Lagomarsino is concerned about juvenile communication. He works the graveyard shift, where the action is, 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. and comes in contact with many teen-agers. "Each night we pick up two or three 15- and 16-year-olds for burglaries, drugs, run-aways, you name it," he said.

"It's hard to get to a lot of them. They're on the streets because of a home based problem. We can only meet with them on the streets... can't live in the home."

The most common reaction from parents of youngsters in trouble is why.

"They don't believe their son or daughter would do such a thing. They say why. It doesn't make any sense. We must be wrong."

"It is the parent's responsibility to know where their son or daughter is," he continued. "Where they go... what they do."

$275,000 State Grant Approved For Pacifica School District

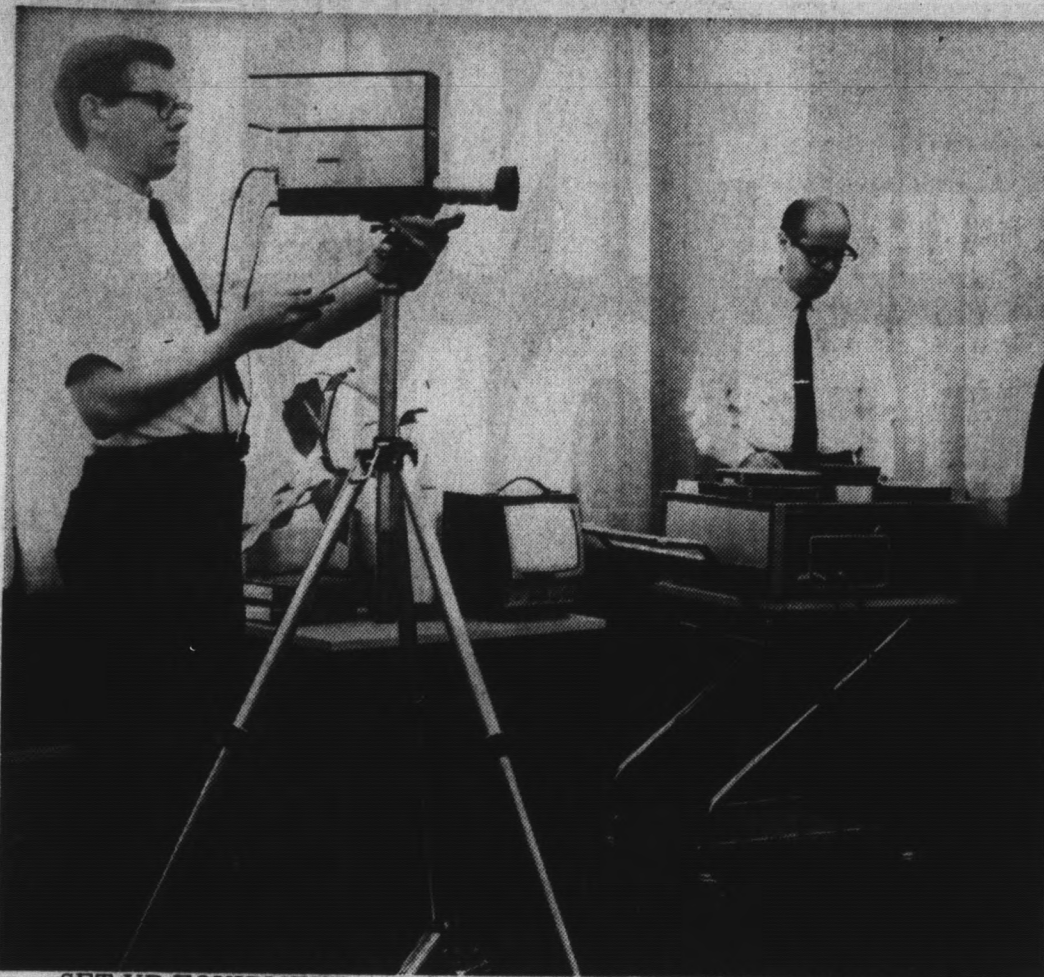

The State Allocations Board last week announced tentative approval of a $275,000 appropriation for Pacifica's Laguna Sada Elementary School District. Aimed at relieving the district's heavy classroom load, especially in the primary grades, the appropriation will be used for construction of five temporary pre-fabricated classrooms and an addition of four permanent classrooms. Three of the five temporary buildings will be located at the Pedro Valley School, District Superintendent Fred Lucas said. One temporary building will be located at Linda Mar School, and one at Sharp Park School.

"We hope to have these buildings installed and ready for use by October 15," Lucas said. The permanent addition is planned for Oddstad School in Park Pacifica. This project is expected to be completed by September, 1969, Lucas said.

The new classroom facilities are urgently needed this year to size to 31 pupils this year, and reduction of classroom loads to 31 pupils is mandatory this year under the State Department of Education's three-year program to reduce the average class from 33 to 30 students, according to Lucas.

Grad Learns About World

FRUSTRATION, inadequate preparation for financial independence and an unwillingness to face reality are suggested by Bonnie Kehoe as some of the causes for youthful drop-outs in the United States in this affluent year of 1968.

Bonnie, one of June's outstanding graduates from Terra Nova High School in Pacifica, has been spending the summer months working with local youth — via her position with the Park, Beach and Recreation Department — and saving toward her enrollment in College of San Mateo next month. She hopes to each elementary school in Pacifica when she has finished at CSM and Chico State College.

"I would like to be able to come back to Pacifica to teach at an elementary school. I love to work with children and find it very rewarding. Children are unique in that they are free in their thoughts," Bonnie explained.

In preparation for a teaching career, Bonnie joined the Future Teachers of America during her freshman year and remained an active participant in that group throughout high school. She was elected to two year-long terms as president. In addition to her club work she became a cadet teacher and worked with the teachers at Ortega Elementary School for one hour a day for three academic years.

DESPITE HER serious interest in teaching, she found much time to round out her activities with such things as membership in the Pep Club where she served a term as historian. She was a member of the Girls Athletic Association for four years and in her senior term she was the association's scribe. She belonged to the Girl's League for two years and found time to chair the decorations committee for the junior prom, to be chairman of the Homecoming Dance in her senior year, to be in charge of the senior breakfast, to chair the Christmas dance and she worked on the home economics department fashion show each of the four years she was in Terra Nova. She was the vice president of the student body in the fall semester and the treasurer in the spring term.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kehoe, Bonnie is the oldest child in a family which includes a new baby, and brothers, Ken, 15; Dan, 14 and Davie who is five years old. The family moved to Pacifica from San Francisco 14 years ago and Bonnie attended Pedro Valley and Linda Mar prior to Terra Nova.

SHE HAS REPRESENTED her school at the NPL conference for all school executive boards and during the Seventh Annual Student in Government Day sponsored by Pacifica. She took part in the Twn Hall meeting on Drugs this past December. During the June graduation exercises her efforts were rewarded with a scholarship from the Terra Nova Future Teacher's Club and a scholarship from the school's faculty.

What does it feel like to be a recent high school graduate? Bonnie pointed out that it takes a little time to get used to coping with new freedoms.

"The high school graduate is finding out a lot about the world. He has gained new freedom and he has lost a lot of security—the feeling of being told to go to certain classes and always being lead or advised in situations. Now he finds there are many decisions he must make on his own, some of those decisions will affect the rest of his life, he is the one who will benefit or lose from the final decisions," she says.

"This graduate should try to slowly work his way into the community. For the last four years he has built his life around the high school and its activities. Now he must leave the close-knit group and try to become a member of the adult world. I think this can be done by joining organizations or activities in which you have an interest. You must show people that you are interested and willing, they are not going to look for you, you must show and prove yourself.

"The high school graduate is important to the community. He has a lot to offer. He is young and has new ideas, they are willing to try changes, and he is flexible. Therefore, I think we should give our community anything we have, and in return we will receive knowledge on life and how to run the government, as we will have charge of it in a few years," Bonnie points out.

Archdiocesan Women Plan A Workshop

'Jesus' Secret' Sermon Topic

The text is from Matthew 5:6. The church is located at Angus and Masson Avenues.

A nursery for small children is provided.

Study groups for all ages are held each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m., and on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m.

The new term will begin on September 15, with registration required in advance for new students. The Sunday School consists of grades pre-kindergarten through 12.

You're probably asked yourself these questions: What if someone falls on my property and sues me... What if my home is burglarized... What if a fire leaves me with just a foundation full of smoldering ashes? The answer to these and many more WHAT IF perils of homeownership is a Homeowner's package policy. We can give you complete details.

Little League Aid—Then...

AS WE REPORTED last week, the Pacific American League Little League All-Stars transcended all the adult squabbling over eligibility and won the right to represent the local section and to go down kicking in Petaluma in the divisional tournament. It was the farthest any local Little League team had ever gone, and it was a tribute to the kids that they advanced to the point where losing was so important.

The name of Steve Shirley brought a flood of unhappy memories rushing back to this columnist. Steve's father, Ron, was a deadly high school rival of ours. Ron played for Sacred Heart and we played for Mission, and Sacred Heart was always, it seems, barely beating us out of a city championship. Ron, a pitcher, later played pro ball in the Dodger chain.

A combination of facing another year playing in Texas and his wife's refusal to ever again enter the state — not a bad season — is what caused Ron's retirement.

As a matter of fact, more pro players quit because of hot weather, homesickness, etc., than a lack of talent. One week we'll fill up an entire column on the subject.

AS WE WATCHED the local Little Leaguers advancing, this year, and noted the scores of enthusiastic parents and friends they drew, we couldn't help wondering what would happen to this parental enthusiasm when the boys grow out of Little League. We've noticed that as they advance up the ladder, to Babe Ruth ball, then to the DiMaggio League, parental interest dwindles greatly.

Why the lag? It seems to us that the deeper a boy moves into puberty, the more guidance and support he needs. We've often seen former Little Leaguers, their parents no longer following their "career," lose interest in baseball and drop out, sometimes to discover less productive ways of taking up their spare time.

Perhaps it's the times, rather than the parents, which are at fault. No doubt, there's been a large general drop in interest in amateur baseball.

We remember, as a youth in San Francisco, when there was never an open baseball diamond in the city on weekends, from 10 a.m. until about 4:5 p.m. At one time 20 teams could play simultaneously at Big Rec in Golden Gate Park, and did!

When Seals Stadium used to be loaned to the high schools for their opening games, crowds of 4000-5000 would attend. Playoffs and championship games at the Stadium at one time drew as many as 10,000.

The kids were interested, and so were the adults. There are many possible reasons why kids drop out of participant sports: the inevitable car and girls, of course, and television and all of the other entertainment media so easily available, now; the increasingly available spectator sports. Thus might one legitimately ask the question, who dropped out first, the kids, or the parent-spectators?

THERE ARE OTHER REASONS, advanced not by sociologists or psychiatrists, but by baseball men. To gather some of the more unique and blood-stimulating ones, we're going to break the columnist's cardinal rule of never interviewing the same source twice within a short period. So we give you Walter Mails, the only Angry Young Man we know who draws Social Security. And believe us, he's plenty angry about the lack of support, in general, being given to kid baseball.

He starts with the relatively mild fact that sponsors for older boys' teams are simply hard to find. It costs only $160 to equip a Little League team, but about $3,000 a season to sponsor a young semi-pro team.

He warms up by citing America's growing love for the law suit.

"The ambulance chasers have invaded sandlot ball!" he says. "They hang around the few diamonds where they're still playing a foul ball. As soon as it happens, they rush down into the stands, hand them a card, and promise them riches beyond their wildest dreams if they'll sue. It's no wonder big firms think twice about sponsoring teams!"

BY NOW THOROUGHLY HOT, Walter angrily lays a large part of the blame for the decline of youth baseball in San Francisco — and implies a warning to our own area that we shouldn't allow such a thing to happen here — on school and other athletic officials who don't care about baseball, for both a personal and practical reasons.

"In the San Francisco area I'll name names as to who's at least partially responsible for the lack of interest in kid baseball, and I dare you to print it!"

"It's George Canrinas (Coordinator of Health, Physical Education, Athletics and Recreation for the San Francisco Public Schools) and 'Chin' Lang (General Manager of the San Francisco Recreation and Park Department). They're football and basketball men, personally, and don't give a damn about baseball."

The way Canrinas treats the high school baseball players is sad. Football and basketball players ride to the games on chartered buses. Baseball players take the Muni.

Rec Program Playday Set

The Daly City Recreation Department will complete its summer program on Thursday, with the first annual Daly City Fun-O-Rama Playday at Westlake Park.

All other playgrounds will be closed that day and bus transportation will be provided for all school and city recreation facilities, except Olympia, Garden Village, Our Lady of Mercy, and Westlake School area youngsters.

The program will begin at 11 a.m. with an opening ceremony parade. Each playground throughout the city has chosen a theme from America's history and will display their theme with costumes, banners, and floats.

Mayor Bud Lyett will help judge and present awards to parade winners.

Immediately following the parade, contests and tournaments will begin for all boy and girl participants over seven years of age.

The schedule for the day's activities: 11 a.m. — The Parade; 11:30-2 p.m. — city-wide championship play-offs for playground tournament winners; 11:30-1:30 p.m. — Contest events, including boys' basketball free throw, softball throw for distance, football throw for distance, football punting for distance, baseball hitting contest.

Girls will compete in: basketball free throw, kickball kick for distance, volleyball serving for accuracy, softball throw for accuracy, and a jump rope contest.

1:30-2:30 p.m. — Running Events for Boys and Girls, 2:30-3 p.m., Award Presentation.

There will be no charge for this activity and all children interested in participating should contact their playground leader.

County Trio Attend Camp

Three San Mateo County athletes have been selected to attend the United States Soccer Football Association Olympic development camp at San Jose State, August 24-30.

They are Len Salvemini and Archie Robostoff of Daly City and Bert Baldaccini of Redwood City.

The youngsters were chosen out of 26 junior soccer players who took part in a tryout game last weekend in Menlo Park.

Making the selections were Dr. Obradovic, manager of the Oakland Clippers, Ivan Toplack, Clipper's coach, E. M. Feibusch, CSFA director of coaching, Julius Menendez, soccer coach, San Jose State College, and Joe Feeney, CSFA staff coach.

This camp, and two others to be held in other parts of the country, are designed to develop players for the U.S. Olympic and Pan-American soccer teams.

Sports Are Included in YWCA Plans

The San Mateo YWCA announced that sports will play an important part in their Fall program.

Included will be horseback riding, judo, hatha yoga, golf, tennis, and physical fitness "the Y's way".

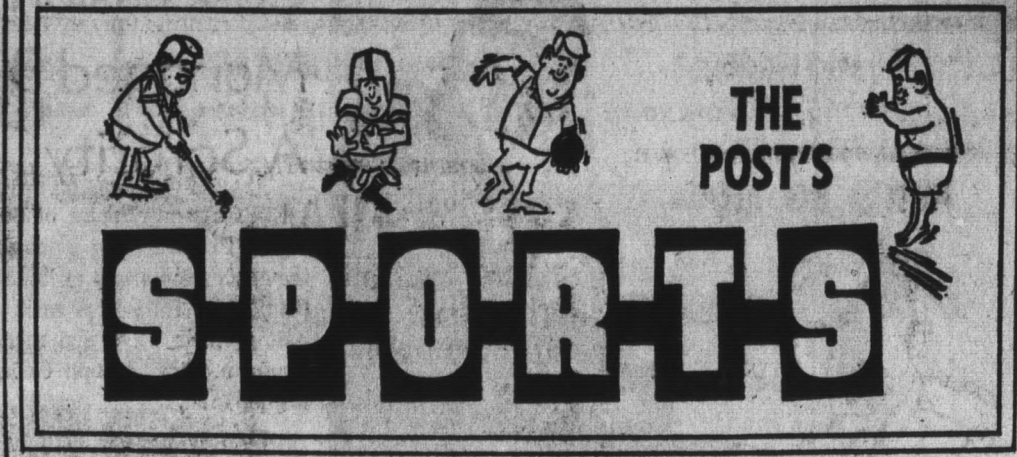

Fall classes will start the week of September 16.

Horseback riding lessons will be taught by "Dev" Farrell at Mar Vista Stables, one of two stables west of Chicago certified by the American Horse Show Association.

Fundamentals of English horsemanship will be taught to youngsters and adults.

Keiko Fukuda, the highest ranking woman judoist in the world, will teach girls and women Judo at the Colma Intermediate School in the upper physical techniques that develop multi-use room.

Judo teaches mental and self confidence and the ability to cope with situations requiring self defense.

Gymnastics For Pre-Schoolers

Gymnastics classes for children 7-12 will be offered each Saturday morning beginning October 5 by the Pacific Recreation Department, spokesmen said this week.

The classes will be held at Oceana High School, 10-11 a.m., and Terra Nova High School, 11:30-12:30, for a period of eight weeks.

The program will include instruction in tumbling, trampoline, fee-exercise, balance beam and parallel bars.

Fee for the course is $3. Registration will be taken at the recreation department's office in city hall beginning Sept. 3.

Park Avenue Tours Plans Disneyland Package

JERRY BARBER and his wife "Barb," who operate the Lake Tahoe (South Shore) PARK AVENUE TOURS, are twice-a-week visitors to the Bay Area — they personally oversee many of the evening GREYHOUND BUS departures to SAHARA-TAHOE and BARNEY'S CASINO which offer a variation of fares and refunds from major cities—Fresno to Santa Rosa. Park Avenue Tours will soon include a travel package to Disneyland... Featuring the world's most beautiful showgirls in imaginative settings, North Lake Tahoe's NEVADA LODGE HAS HOSTED 'VIVE LES GIRLS' for five years as an adults-only potpourri of sensational entertainment. Staged nightly throughout the summer in Nevada Lodge's colorful Topaz Room NUGGET rocks twice nightly (through August 21) with the sweet music of bearded AL HIRT. Adding to the great show are the magic trumpet notes of Hirt's side-kick, PEE WEE SPITELERA; the YOUNG SET; BUD and CECE ROBINSON; THE NOVELITES, and the Nugget's amazing elephants, BERTHA and TINA.

"ONE SHOT DID THE TRICK"—After bagging this deer in Healdsburg, Vince "Frank Buck" Licata, popular owner of Vince's Italian and Sea Food restaurant, is all set for the next "big hunt" and its game reward.

Adrian Stickney Veteran Peninsula Restaurateur

SINCE THE OPENING of his Redwood City HICK'RY HOUSE in 1950, ADRIAN "RED" STICKNEY, veteran Peninsula restaurateur, has added several other locations to his restaurant empire — from San Mateo to San Jose. To thousands of Peninsula's, the word STICKNEY'S is now synonymous with fine dining... Operating two restaurants, NICK'S and THE MOONRAKER, and being the mayor of Pacifica is a tall order. But that's just what MAYOR NICK GUST, the "powerhouse" of Rockaway Beach, is doing on a daily basis. Having a natural flair for greeting the public, Mayor Gust is the constant target for a handshake or "hello" from folks from all over the Bay Area who are making the Moonraker, new and nautically different, and Nick's, still one of the area's most favored fun, dine and wine stops, their meeting place after a scenic drive. On the entertainment agenda: DON KELLY presides over the organ at The Moonraker; the DEL CARLO TRIO, MARY ANN HAY on vocals, and JIM PAYER, a new organ personality, at Nick's.

Mr. and Mrs. Finocchio Produce Fantasy Revue

THE COLORFUL, NEW Latin Fantasy Revue, produced by MR. AND MRS. JOE FINOCCHIO at their S. F. Broadway niter, is one of the success stories of the current summer season. Everyone in the large cast takes part in the glittering finale. Fashion-plate AL ST. CLAIR emcees; JACKIE PHILLIPS and CARROLL WALLACE present some startling Brazilian segments, and LUCIAN, the "male Sophie Tucker," wears headgear reminiscent of the late Carmen Miranda. JUAN JOSE, RENEE DE CARLO and BOBBY DE CASTRO are outstanding in their Cuban flamboyance, while REGGIE DAHL and LAVERNE CUMMINGS present a "Quando, Quando." Also adding excitement are ELTON PARIS, RUSSELL REED, BILLIE DE VOE and FRANCIS BLAIR... Many diners are amazed, when ordering a certain ounce-sized steak at PHIL LEHR'S STEAKERY in downtown San Francisco, to see Phil cut it to their exact order. I've got news for them! Phil has had years of experience at cutting steaks and he always comes within an ounce or less of the size ordered...

Foster's Rates High On The "Dine Out" List

FOSTER'S ORIGINAL CHICKEN AND PANCAKE HOUSE in San Mateo rates at the top of the list in all food capacities. Here, you'll find a choice of pancakes, with recipes from all corners of the earth; fried chicken (eat in or take out); complete dinners; salad bar selection; sandwiches, from Club House to hamburgers; specialty dishes, such as "Three Pigs in a Blanket" (link sausages wrapped in buttermilk pancakes, syrup and butter); waffles, eggs, meats and Foster's famous muffins. When you think of coffee shops with a "personality" and sparkling neat in all phases, remember the name Foster's... Florida-born BOB ROBBINS is the full-time night plankman in the luxurious Lancer Lounge of FRED and JERRY RAPP'S South San Francisco HOLIDAY INN. You name it, he'll make it... Exposition Bouillabaise, better known as Fisherman's Wharf as "Lazy Man's Clippino," is a specialty at SIL OLIVA'S EXPOSITION FISH GROTTO... DON DIANDA is rightfully proud of the large number of lunchers or diners at DOROS on SF's Montgomery Street who tell him it's one of the best restaurants they've enjoyed in their trip around the U.S.

"Bus With Us" Hall Of Horns Sport Theme

HAYWARD'S HALL OF HORNS is the East Bay headquarters for avid pro-football fans. Be it 49'er or Raider rooters, Manager HANS GRAHLMANN has a package deal which covers the bus trip, game tickets and a buffet luncheon or dinner... If he wanted to, PHIL MAITA, dynamic owner of the FIRESIDE LOUNGE, could very well become a fine lawyer. Involved first-hand in the present Topless controversy in San Mateo, Phil, when asked for his ideas, presents his views in an articulate barrister manner... FRED HINRICH, catering manager at MICHAEL GOTTLEB'S THUNDERBOLT HOTEL in Millbrae, is the man to see when planning any type of business or social function for your group... Currently in the second week of a three-week run in Nero's Nook at Palo Alto's CABANA HOTEL, the MICKEY TURNER group presents five shows nightly. Singer IRIS MARTINE is just one of the talent highlights.

Irifune Japanese Food Mid-day Meal Treat

A DELIGHTFUL CHANGE of pace from the daily luncheon routine would be to drop by the IRIFUNE Japanese restaurant for a mid-day meal. Owner TOSHIO KIYOHARA's authentic Oriental cuisine rates raves with knowledgeable Japanese food fanciers. Dinner is also served... NORRIS PALMER, who oversees the V.I.P. ROOM and MILLS SQUARE RESTAURANT cash registers, invites those who haven't been in for breakfast, luncheon or dinner to give it serious consideration. Cocktails? You betcha. Matt Monro Returns To Venetian Room Aug. 22

RETURNING TO THE FAIRMONT HOTEL'S Venetian Room Thursday, August 22, for a three-week engagement, Englander MATT MONRO, a singer of sensitivity and scope, has built up a loyal following on this side of the world. His latest single for Capitol Records has "Yours Alone" and "The Music Played." FORD and HINES is the current Venetian Room attraction... Another new "happening" is slated for the rockin' HI-FI ROOM SOUTH. Starting Sunday, August 25, the JIMMY LITTELL TRIO, who made Hayward's Bird Cage famous, will be appearing here every Sunday. Featured is pretty vocalist-guitarist ROSALIE LITTELL... Two of America's greatest Greek dancers, the KLEPTIC DANCERS, arrive at the BALKAN VILLAGE on Friday, August 30. GEORGE NICHOLS and GEORGE ALEXIADIS were acclaimed for their authentic Middle Eastern dances during their last outing here... Credit JOHN TEALDI, handsome manager of SODINI'S LOUNGE, with "discovering" DICK FORREST, talented guitarist-singer who appears at this Redwood City lounge on Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday nights.

Alexi's Zorba Reopens Many New Faces on Tap

ALEXI'S ZORBA, located next to the Hyatt Cinema Theater in Burlingame, reopened Friday night, with many new faces on tap — from hat check girl to chef. Greek food, dancing and music is the order of the evening... Taste tip: Tagliarini with meat sauce (narrow egg noodles covered with Romano's famous meat sauce), as served at ROMANO'S Italian restaurant in Rockaway Beach... Musical change at A. SABELLA'S on Fisherman's Wharf: JOE MARCELLINO will move his baton and orchestra to new fields. A new maestro will be announced by Bossman LUCIEN next week. Dinner-dancing Monday through Saturday in the Capri Room; service seven days a week... JULIO DONATI, co-owner of the NEW SOUTHERN restaurant, returned from a vacation trip to the southern part of the state, where he treated his family to the sights of the San Diego Zoo and a tour of Disneyland... Avis may be only Number Two, but they never settle for second best when holding a dinner party. Avis chiefs hold their banquets regularly at LEW LEHR'S, the noted steakhouse in SF's Marina.

Frisbee Toss Off Winners Disclosed

Three young men carried home honors after skillfully tossing their way through three events at the City-Wide Toss Off at the War Memorial Community Center.

The Frisbee Champs are: Neal Prichard, age 15, first; Ted Black, 12; Tom Baker, 11.

The victory of these boys was the climax of a program sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department in which over 400 children competed for neighborhood honors at each of the 25 playgrounds.

The winners from each site converged on the community center to vie for top honors in tests of accuracy and distance.

The three city winners are eligible to attend the regional contest to be held in the bay area later this summer.

The Regional winner will then receive a $100 bond and an expense-paid trip to Southern California for the National Contest. The Regional winner may win an additional $1,000 savings bond.

Each playground and three place winners are as follows: F. D. Roosevelt — Ralph Sands, Jim Beighley and Don Thuermer.

Geo. Washington — Michael Lopez, Armando Ojeda and Darrell Allen.

Vista Grande — Russell Van Patten, Jim Loveless and Eugene Moll.

D. Webster — Bob Bahm, Phil Mazzucco and Tony Bruno.

M. P. Brown — Neil Prichard, Westmoor Park — Tim Rea, John Gallagher and Jim Frates.

Westlake School — Markos Kounalakis, Andy Mascaroni and Mitch Hanick and Ron Hipschman were tied at third.

Westlake Park — Mike Kriklavsky, Robert Hopkins and Sally Costello were tie for second and Jeff Weber.

Garden Village — Tom Bowen, Jim Ullom and Maurice Valdes.

Our Lady of Mercy — Bob Enright, Joey McKenna and Paul Kenny.

Marchbanks — Kenny Smith,

Michael Schoeneck Now The Bride of Marc Nevarez

Michael Schoeneck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Schoeneck of San Bruno, was married last Saturday at St. Bruno's Catholic Church to Marc Nevarez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcos Nevarez of Millbrae. The 1 p.m. ceremony was followed by a reception at the Lazy V.

Michael, who was escorted to the altar by her father, selected a floor length gown of organza with a chapel length Watteau train. The bodice featured a high-open neckline and long pointed sleeves. Alencon lace appliques and pearl clusters and tracings highlighted the front of the gown. The bride's illusion veil was caught by a petal cap of organza and pearls.

Marilyn Matli was the matron of honor for her sister, and bridesmaids were Lana Guaraldi, Carol McSweeney, and Torni Fox. Linda Waggy was the flower girl. They wore floor length gowns of crepe in a mint green shade whose bodices and sleeves were overlaid with white floral interlacing. The same tracery continued down the center of the trains.

Robert Navarez, brother of the bridegroom was the ring bearer.

The new matron is also the sister of Bev Kingham of Malibu and Kay Hughes of Stockton. She attended Capuchino High School. Marc attended Mills High School and the College of San Mateo and is now on Army leave after spending 13 months in Vietnam.

NELL NORTON

(Sugar 'n Spice)

They Call 'Em 'Rocks'

Good morning, good cooks.

Do you feel like baking today? I hope you do because I have some very tasty recipes to share with you. Cookies, cake and an elegant dessert.

This first cookie recipe has a rather unglamorous name, "Rocks," but don't let the name fool you. They don't feel like rocks, they don't look like rocks, and I assume don't taste like rocks. Never having eaten a rock I really can't speak with authority on how rocks taste. But I can say that these "Rocks" taste delicious.

ROCKS

- 1 1/2 cups butter
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 3 beaten eggs
- 3 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 1/4 cup hot water
- 2 cups raisins
- 1 1/2 cups walnuts
- 1 cup chopped dates or candied fruits

Using a large mixing bowl, cream the one-half cup butter, add the one and one-half cups sugar gradually, creaming as you do. Add the three beaten eggs and mix well. Sift together the three cups flour, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon salt and one teaspoon nutmeg.

Dissolve the one teaspoon soda in the one-half cup hot water and add to the creamed mixture alternately with the sifted ingredients. When well blended add the one and one-half cup chopped walnuts, two cup raisins and one cup dates. Mix. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto about 12 minutes or until nicely browned.

MOST OF US have a favorite recipe for quick bread. A date-nut loaf or banana loaf that we can whip up in a hurry. This next recipe is for a tasty apple loaf that I found delicious and recommend it to you good cookies. It is not as sweet as the usual fruit bread, but mighty good.

APPLE OAT BREAD

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon allspice
- 2-3 cups firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1 1/2 cups rolled oats
- 1 cup finely chopped and peeled apple
- 1/4 cup chopped walnuts
- 2 eggs well beaten
- 2-3 cup milk
- 2 cups shortening, melted and slightly cooled
- 2 tablespoons dark molasses

In a mixing bowl sift together the two cups flour, two and one-half teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt, three-fourths teaspoon cinnamon, one-fourth teaspoon nutmeg, and one-eighth teaspoon allspice. Add the two-third cup brown sugar, one and one-half cups rolled oats, one cup finely chopped apple and one-fourth cup chopped nuts.

Combine the two well beaten eggs, two-thirds cup milk, two tablespoons molasses and one-fourth cup cooled melted shortening. Add the liquids to the flour mixture and stir only enough to dampen all flour. Pour into well-greased 8x4-inch loaf pan.

Bake in preheated 350-degree oven 60 to 65 minutes. Cool about 10 minutes. Turn out on rack to finish cooling. When bread is cool, wrap in wax paper, plastic bag or aluminum foil. For best slicing and mellowing of flavors, store bread 12 hours or overnight or freeze before using.

SPEAKING OF QUICK BAKING, these Toll House Kookie Brittle cookies are really quick and easy to fix. And the result of this speedy cookie baking is something terrific.

TOLL HOUSE KOOKIE BRITTLE

- 1 cup margarine
- 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 1 cup finely chopped nuts
- 1 6-oz. pkg. (1 cup) Semi-Sweet Chocolate Morsels

Preheat oven to 375-degrees. Combine the one cup margarine, one and one-half teaspoons vanilla and salt in bowl, and blend well. Gradually beat in the one cup sugar. Add the two cups flour and the Semi-Sweet Chocolate Morsels; mix well. Press evenly into ungreased 15x10x1-inch pan. Sprinkle nuts over top.

Bake in 375-degree oven for 25 minutes. Cool and then break into irregular pieces and drain on absorbent paper. Makes about one and three-fourths pounds.

LAST AND CERTAINLY not least, comes this rich, chocolate and almond dessert. If you are trying to lose weight, as I am, stop reading right now. If you are trying to lose weight and are weak-willed, as I am, continue.

Did you continue? Good.

ENGLISH TOFFEE DESSERT

- 2 squares Semi-Sweet Chocolate
- 1 pkg. vanilla cookies (7 oz.) crushed
- 1 cup butter
- 2 cups powdered sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 3 eggs
- 1 cup silvered and toasted almonds

Melt the two squares of chocolate in double boiler. Cool chocolate. While chocolate is cling, butter a 9x9-inch pan and line with part of the cookie crumbs (save a few for the top). Cream the one cup butter and cream in the two cups powdered sugar and one teaspoon vanilla. Add the three eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition. Pour over crumbs. Top with the cup silvered and toasted almonds. Cover and refrigerate overnight. Cut into small squares. Garnish with saved crumbs. Serves 8 to 10.

SUE LIVINGSTONE, LARRY FANUCCHI
Plan to Wed

Sue Livingstone Is Bride-Elect

St. Robert's Catholic Church will be the setting on October 5 for the marriage of Sue Livingstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Livingstone of San Bruno, and Larry R. Fanucchi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fanucchi of Daly City.

Sue, the sister of Douglas H. Livingstone, attended Crestmoor High School. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Maria Calia.

Larry is the brother of Nancy M. Fanucchi and the grandson of Robert Randle and Rose Fanucchi. He attended Westmoor High School and is in the National Guard.

The bridal party will consist of Marlene Livingstone as honor attendant and Lynda Rae and Cathy Chambers as bridesmaids. Marie Calia, and Nancy Fanucchi are junior bridesmaids. The masculine side of the wedding party will consist of Doug Livingstone, best man, and Ron Burns and Frank Censa, ushers. Joey Calia will be the ring bearer.

A reception will follow at the New Southern Restaurant in South San Francisco.

Newlyweds Are Home In Burlingame

At home in Burlingame are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frederick Snodgrass who were married recently at the San Bruno Community Methodist Church.

The bride is the former Leah Laura Anderson, daughter of Mrs. William B. Anderson of San Bruno. She was given in marriage by her grandfather, Milton D. Morris of Placerville.

The bride's gown was a semi-fitted creation of white slipper satin with a Chantilly lace bodice and bell-shaped sleeves and train. Her elbow length illusion veil was caught by a pillbox of white satin and Chantilly lace.

Candace Anderson, her sister's maid of honor, wore a turquoise linen dress. Candace Whitney, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of grass green linen.

Kirk Snodgrass was his brother's best man and guests were seated by Leonard Lubrano and Hayne Ronald Meyer.

After a reception in the church fellowship hall, the couple departed on a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe. The new matron was graduated from Capuchino High School and the College of San Mateo. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Snodgrass of Burlingame, was graduated from Burlingame High School and CSM.

Driver Has Heart Attack

A man taken dead from the wreckage of his car on Bayshore Freeway in South San Francisco Tuesday morning was identified as Robert Lee Thornton, 53-year-old ship's radioman from Honolulu.

Coroner Paul B. Jensen said Thornton suffered an apparent heart attack while driving northbound. He managed to turn off the ignition before the car swerved out of control and drifted into the ice plant beside the road, Jensen said.

The victim's wife was located in New Jersey.

Jensen said Thornton had been attending an advanced radio school in San Francisco sponsored by his union.

Fire Damages Cove Cabin

A fire which apparently started from a faulty extension cord caused an estimated $500 damage to a cabin at Shelter Cove in Pacifica Tuesday, authorities reported.

Firemen said the blaze started on the back porch of a cabin at 18 Shelter Cove about 5:45 p.m., and damaged a table and other objects before it could be extinguished. The occupant of the cabin, Elizabeth Reuss, was home when the blaze began, firemen said, and attempted to extinguish it with water before calling the fire department.

DENTAL HEALTH FACTS

Brush After Meals

Brushing after meals not only helps to remove food particles from which decay acids are formed, but also helps to remove the bacteria that are responsible for producing the acid. So get in the habit of brushing after every meal.

Brush Thoroughly

Even if you brush after every meal, success in preventing decay won't be achieved unless you brush thoroughly. Use a good toothbrush that is in good condition.

Please ask your dentist about proper brushing of teeth.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth, as dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Like Southern Cooking? Here Are Some Recipes From Charleston

A cool summer "cook-in" with few precious summer moments over a stove. From Charleston, South Carolina comes CHARLESTON RECIPES, a cookbook for all occasions.

A Special Brunch For Vacations

When friends or relatives are visiting, mornings are lazy and casual. Unless something unusual is planned, visitors will sleep late, in time to combine the meals of breakfast and lunch, called brunch.

A wise hostess makes this an interesting meal from which to choose: melon wedges, frosty orange juice, Candian-style bacon with banana fritters, scrambled eggs and toast.

Candian-style bacon is available either in chunk, that is by the piece, or already sliced. It's a no-waste cut that cooks quickly by broiling, panbroiling or panfrying.

Candian-Style Bacon with Banana Fritters
8 slices Candian-style bacon, cut 1/2-inch thick

Banana Fritters
Place Candian-style bacon on broiler rack. Insert broiler rack and pan in broiler so that the top surface of the meat is two to three inches from the heat. When the bacon is nicely browned, about five to six minutes, turn and brown other side. Allow eight to ten minutes total broiling time. Four servings.

Banana Fritters
1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
1 egg, beaten
2 teaspoons melted lard
3 to 4 firm bananas
2 tablespoons flour
Lard for deep-fat frying
Sift one cup flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Combine milk, egg and lard. Add to dry ingredients and mix until batter is smooth. Cut each banana into three or four diagonal pieces. Roll in remaining flour and dip in batter. Fry in deep hot lard (360 degrees), turning frequently for even browning. Remove and drain on absorbent paper. Six to eight servings.

Save Some Slices Of Your Roast

Whether meat's been roasted on the rotisserie or in the oven, a few slices from it make a delightful sandwich offering for supper.

Beef, pork, lamb or veal may be used for this open-face sandwich, topped with a two-cheese mixture that's broiled.

To retain flavor and juices, refrigerate leftover meat as soon as possible. Cooked roasts are best when stored closely covered.

Sunday Supper Sandwich
4 slices cooked lamb, beef, pork or veal
4 slices bread
Butter or margarine
1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese
1 tablespoon crumbled blue cheese
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
Toast bread on one side. Butter untoasted side. Place meat on buttered side of bread slices. Cream together cheese, mustard and onion. Place two tablespoons mixture on each sandwich and spread to within 1/2 inch from the edge of the meat. Sprinkle parsley on top. Bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 8 to 10 minutes. Four sandwiches.

Keep Cool With Tricks

Cut down on heat while cooking by employing simple tricks like this: bake meat loaf mixture in muffin pans as individual servings instead of the loaf pan. Using a 325 degree F. to 350 degree F. oven temperature, the meat "cups" will take 25 to 30 minutes rather than 60 to 90 minutes for a loaf.

Cooking time for meat loaf can also be cut down when the meat is packed into a nine-inch square pan rather than a loaf. Using moderate temperature, the square pan of meat mixture takes 45 to 60 minutes.

This book is a unique collection of recipes from nearby plantations, old family cooks and many memories. Each recipe is a culinary delight, as well as a simple endeavor. The book itself has local sketches and Gullah verses for each chapter—a fun cookbook!

With fresh vegetables arriving daily, who could resist low Country Cucumber Soup served with Shrimp in Guinea Squash? To complement this menu, serve a crisp green salad with Minute Egg Dressing and Buttermilk Ice Cream for dessert.

COLD CUCUMBER SOUP
2 medium-sized Irish potatoes
2 medium-sized cucumbers
1 cup chicken stock
1 pint milk
1/2 pint cream
1/2 teaspoon onion juice
Salt and pepper to taste

Boil potatoes in just enough water to cover. When done, mash through a strainer with the water in which they were cooked. Put cucumbers through a fine meat grinder, not losing any of the liquid. Add chicken stock, milk, cream, and seasonings. Chill thoroughly before serving. Serves 6.

SHRIMP IN GUINEA SQUASH
1 guinea squash, medium (eggplant)
1 pound shrimp
2 eggs
1 teaspoon salt, scant
Dash hot sauce and Mace
1 cup finely crumbled bread
1 teaspoon Worcestershire
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
Toast crumbs
Small piece of butter

Cut guinea squash in half, lengthwise. Scoop out pulp, taking care not to pierce shell. Steam or boil pulp until tender, mash thoroughly. Add cooked shrimp, bread crumbs, and seasoning, then the well-beaten eggs. Pour into squash shells which have been wiped outside with butter. Bake in moderate oven about 30 minutes. Serves 4-6.

MINUTE EGG DRESSING

1 egg
1/2 C. olive or salad oil
1/2 tsp. red pepper—to taste
1/2 tsp. salt—to taste
1/2 tbs. butter or oleo
1 clove garlic
1/4 C. grated Italian Cheese (Parmesan)
1 tbs. vinegar (approx.)
Cut bread into tiny cubes.

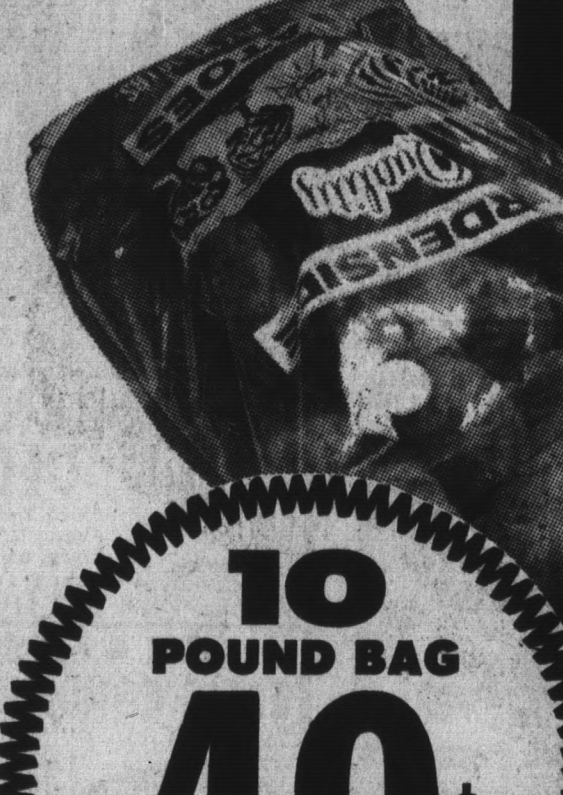

Place butter in iron frying pan over lowest heat. Add bread and cook until crisp, stirring occasionally to prevent burning. Put egg into bowl, mince garlic and add. Beat well with rotary beater. Add oil, a little at a time, and continue beating until mixture begins to thicken. (In order to get the mixture to thicken, it may be necessary to use a little less or a little more than 1/2 C. oil.) Add cheese, red pepper and salt. Beat well. Add vinegar. Beat well. Just before serving, add bread cubes. Pour over lettuce and toss well. Serves 4. The lettuce may be romaine or iceberg and should be coarsely cut or torn into pieces.

BUTTERMILK ICE CREAM
1 quart buttermilk
1 pint cream
1 1/2 cups sugar
Flavor with vanilla or wine
Blend these ingredients and put in freezing unit of the refrigerator. Stir well after it begins to freeze and return to refrigerator. Serves 8.

Allow Time For Broiling

It's perfectly all right, but do also be cooked further away from the heat than those which have been defrosted so the meat will be cooked without becoming too brown on the outside.

Summer Is Seafood Time—Here Are Some Fine New England Recipes

Summer and seafood go together like winter and stew and spring and asparagus.

At the shore, vacationers flock to seafood restaurants for the specialty of the house and to fish markets for the catch of the day.

One of the most popular festivals on the East coast is the Scallop Festival held each year in New Bedford, Massachusetts, the home of the largest sea scallop catch in America.

This year the Scallop Festival had a new wrinkle and a new name. It is now officially christened The Seafood Festival and was held August 9, 10 and 11. Instead of a scallop dinner being offered during the three days of the festival, the plate was a seafood one including both scallops and a flounder fillet.

The seafood dinner served in Marine park under the huge green and white candy-striped tent is always the hit of the festival and the busiest spot imaginable with as many as fifteen hundred people being fed at once.

For your own seafood platter, New Bedford style, follow the recipes here.

CABBAGE SALAD

- ¼ cup light corn syrup
 - ¼ cup corn oil
 - 1-3 cup vinegar
 - ¼ teaspoon salt
 - 8 cups shredded cabbage
- Mix corn syrup, corn oil, vine-

Open-face Sandwiches For Teeners

Teen-agers like their favorite foods when the crowd gathers. Forget the frills and let them have hot dogs, French fries, a molded salad, iced soft drinks and brownies for dessert.

It's difficult to predict the size of their appetites, but with simple foods such as these Open-Face "Frank" Sandwiches, the wieners and cheese mixture can be kept on hand if the group wants seconds or thirds. Keep these refrigerated.

Should mother like to make the cheese mixture in advance, she can quickly mix the grated cheese with pickle relish, mayonnaise, and mustard that goes into the two slits made in the frankfurters.

OPEN-FACE "FRANK" SANDWICHES

- 8-10 frankfurters
- 1½ cups grated sharp Cheddar cheese
- One-third cup drained pickle relish
- 2 tbs. mayonnaise
- 2 tsp. prepared mustard
- 8-10 frankfurter buns, split
- Cut two slits, lengthwise, into each frankfurter, being careful not to cut completely through. Combine cheese, pickle relish and mayonnaise. Pack cheese mixture into frankfurter slits. Spread mustard on bottom half of each frankfurter bun. Top with frankfurters. Place these and tops of frankfurter buns in pan. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 10 minutes or until cheese is melted. Eight to ten servings.

Youth For Christ Leader To Be Westside Speaker

The August 25, 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services of the Westside Baptist Church, Inverness Drive and Hickey Boulevards, in Pacifica, will feature the Rev. Guy Rowe, Director of Greater San Francisco Youth for Christ, as guest speaker.

Reverend Rowe comes to San Francisco, from his home state of Oklahoma. He is a graduate of Central Bible College of Springfield, Mo., and was licensed to the gospel ministry at the age of 15. After graduation from high school travelled as a Youth Evangelist.

Following the completion of College, he served as a minister of churches in Oklahoma, and then was called to the San Francisco post. The youth rally meetings are held on the first and third Saturdays of every month, at the War Memorial Auditorium, in San Francisco.

Sunday evening, at the gospel hour, musical talent featured at the rally will be presented.

At the morning worship hour, Per Hillerstrom, baritone soloist, will be the featured musician.

In the absence of Pastor A. David Donnelly, who is on vacation, Bill DeLung, vice-chairman of the church will be in charge of services.

Saturday at 8 a.m., the Men's Prayer Fellowship will meet at the church parsonage, with Jim McDaniels in charge.
